

Art Knowledge Organiser - Abstract painting

Assessment Question: How can I create different tones of colour using watercolour paint?

Topic Vocabulary

Tone- A shade of colour.

Contrast- The amount of different between colours or tones.

Palette- A board on which an artist mixes colour.

Landscape- A picture of countryside.

Horizon- The line where the sky appears to meet the land or sea.

Skills

- Using watercolours and mix colours with white to make different tones of colour
- To experiment with the application of colours
- To make practical responses to the work of Georgia O'Keefe and J.M.W Turner
- Understanding the wash technique of wet on wet.
- To mix colours and select appropriate brushes for specific purposes

Facts

- Georgia O'Keefe was known for her paintings of enlarged flowers, New York skyscrapers, and New Mexico landscapes.
- J.M.W Turner, was an English Romantic painter, printmaker and watercolourist.
- Turner is known for his expressive colourisations, imaginative landscapes and turbulent, often violent marine paintings.

Examples

Georgia O'Keefe

J.M.W Turner