

Geography - Places Assessment Question: What types of places do people live?

Map	A map is a picture representation or a section of land
Key	A key is a series of symbols which help you make sense of a map.
Natural features	Natural geographical features are naturally-created features of the earth.
Human features	The human characteristics of a place come from human ideas and actions.

Human Features

Natural Features

